

Frequently asked questions of the Clerk's Office

- What do I need to get a marriage license?

Answer: Both applicants must be present and show a photo ID with birth date, the license will cost $25.00 (cash only).

- Do I need to get a blood test to get married?

Answer: No.

- How long before I get married do I need to get the license?

Answer: There is no waiting period.

- Is my marriage license good outside of Roosevelt County?

Answer: Yes. It is good in any county within New Mexico.

- Will I be taken off the voter roll (purged) if I miss voting in an election?

Answer: No. You must miss 2 complete voting cycles.

- Can I register to vote at age 17 if I will be 18 by Election Day?

Answer: Yes.

- Can I vote by mail even if I am in the County on Election Day?

Answer: Yes.

- Can I get a form for a deed or power of attorney from your office?

Answer: No, but we suggest you see your attorney, abstractor, or local library; forms are also available online and at office supply stores.

- Can I get a copy of my Birth Certificate from your office?

Answer: No. New Mexico Birth records are filed at the Santa Fe Department of Health. You may also try the Clovis Health Office. Their number is (575) 763-5583.

- Do I need an ID to register to vote?

Answer: No, if you register in person, you do not need an ID. If you register by mail, you will be required to show ID at the polls, the first time you cast a ballot.